

The Bright Side of Youth

Closing Tableau

- 1) The pianist plays "Onward Christian Soldiers" for the entrance of the youth groups.
- 2) The Job's Daughters enter first and form a cross in the center of the floor.
- 3) The Rainbow Girls enter next marching in two rows, one on each side of the cross, to the stairs where they will form a rainbow at the top of the cross.
- 4) The DeMolay enter last with one member going to the podium and the others forming a shield around the bottom of the cross.
- 5) The Rainbow Girls sing "Rainbow Dreams."
- 6) The pianist plays three chords. All three youth groups assume the attitude of prayer in the following manner:
  - a) All Job's daughters kneel on both knees
  - b) All Rainbow Girls bow their heads, but remain standing
  - c) the DeMolay who form the shield kneel on their left knees
- 7) A DeMolay delivers the Nine o'clock Interpolation at the podium.
- 8) The Job's Daughters sing "Nearer My God to Thee."
- 9) The pianist plays three chords. All three youth groups stand and/or raise their heads.
- 10) The pianist plays "We March Along Together."
All three youth groups exit the room in the reverse order from how they entered
The DeMolay leaves first, Rainbow Girls second, and Job's Daughters third.

The dress rehearsal for the Closing Tableau will begin at four o'clock (4:00 PM) sharp on the same evening of the performance. The dress rehearsal will go very quickly. Please be dressed and on time.

The Job's Daughters will need to provide their own Bethel robes, capes, crowns, hair ribbons, etc.

The Rainbow Girls should be dressed in white or off-white formals. The Bright Side of Youth Committee will provide the capes in the seven different rainbow colors.

The DeMolay will need to provide their own capes and should be dressed with a collared shirt, neck tie and nice slacks. (No bluejeans!)

If the closing Tableau seems to be a little different from the ritual with which you are familiar, do not worry. It is supposed to be different.
